

BSA Gender and Feminism Study Group

Annual Report July 2023

Established 2011

Current membership: 568

Balance: £456

Study group aims are to:

- Provide a forum that enables the critical development of contemporary gender theory and research across a diverse range of gender-related fields.
- Provide a professional network that brings together gender-interested academics, researchers, postgraduate and doctoral students.
- Provide a context in which interdisciplinary (inter)national networking can take place to encourage (inter)national research collaborations.
- Provide an environment that seeks to advance and protect feminist, queer and gender theory and research in the face of hostile changes to the social sciences and humanities landscape.
- To inform and contribute to the BSA's annual conference.

Review of the year:

We continue to maintain the very busy and popular jisc mailing list for the group, and want to move now to considering how to develop in two ways:

1. Increasing the activities of the group, collectively, especially in terms of co-working and peer support for research.
2. Developing an activist focus in response to an increasing hostile sector for sociology, and gender/ feminism studies, as disciplines.
